

5 O'CLOCK SPECIAL.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE SUMMER GIRL

Speeches by Senators, Congressmen and Lawyers.

Charming Social Gossip.

The Summer Resorts Treated More Fully Than They Ever Have Been by an American Journal.

SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD. SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

MILFORD'S FLOOD. A CORONET FOR MISS EHRET.

A New Jersey Village Nearly Destroyed by a Cloudburst.

Houses, Barns, Factories and Bridges Destroyed.

One Life Lost, $100,000 Worth of Property Carried Off.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

MILFORD, N. J., July 5.—This village presents a scene this morning which presents many features of disaster identical with those of stricken Johnstown last year. At least $100,000 worth of property was swept away by flood last evening, and it is known that one life, if not more, was quenched by the rushing waters.

The flood came about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, turning the Independence Day festivities into universal alarm at the devastation of the elements.

At that hour there was a cloudburst near the village, and rain fell in torrents till nearly 8 o'clock. The waters in the creek that runs through the eastern part of the town began to rise rapidly.

High embankments had been built along the sides of the stream after the flood of a year ago, which had destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of property, but these artificial banks were insufficient to restrain the torrents, which washed them away as if made of cardboard.

Before people had been fully aroused to the danger of the situation the rushing water fairly lifted from its foundations the frame carpenter's factory of William H. Teets and bore it down against the iron suspension bridge which crosses the creek at Bridge street. The bridge was crushed like an eggshell and was swallowed up in the flood in an instant. The bridge was 102 feet long and cost $1,000.

W. F. Thomas, dam, at their door mill, went next. A loss of about $500.

At this time the water was rising high ground on the hill, were caught by the flood and carried away.

Houses were thrown to them by terrified people, and the water was rising high ground on the hill, were caught by the flood and carried away.

The child's body was carried down the stream and lay among the debris which had accumulated from the wreck of the structure above. It has not yet been recovered, though search parties are eagerly scanning every part of the stream in the hope of finding it.

It is not yet known if any other lives have been lost, but many of the houses have been destroyed, and the water is still rising.

Another bridge, a small stone structure spanning another creek about a mile below the town, was carried away also, delaying traffic several hours.

The streets in the low-lying part of the town were filled with water to the depth of three or four feet, and mud and clay a foot deep lay in every thoroughfare. Many carcasses of drowned horses and cattle were found in every thoroughfare. Many barns were totally destroyed, and frame houses were wrecked and wrecked in large numbers, their occupants being fortunate to escape.

As nearly as possible to estimate this morning $100,000 is an inside figure of the loss. No such rainfall was ever seen here before.

A current was washed out and the railway track was torn out within 100 feet of the spot where the wrecked structure was wrecked a few years ago with frightful loss of life. Prompt darning of the same express train last night prevented a recurrence of that catastrophe.

By an improvised switch trains were enabled to resume their trips about daylight this morning.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

HIGHTSTOWN, N. J., July 5.—A terrific thunder storm passed over here last night. The lightning struck several places.

All of the farm buildings belonging to William Duncan were burned, together with one horse, two mules and two cows. The loss will amount to $5,000.

Rudyard Kipling on America.

The most popular story-teller of the day has had his fling at the United States. It will be printed in next Sunday's "World."

STILETTOS 'DON'T GO.'

Two Italians Pointed Arguments to Prevent their Cousin's Marriage.

Luis Lafale and Nicoletto Deceneto, most staid Italians, were held for trial in Justice Tamm's Brooklyn police court to-day for assault.

Their offense was unique. During the night they crept into the room of Frank and Michael Michaels, on the third floor of 28 Atlantic avenue, and, for no reason except to prevent the marriage of the Michaels to Deceneto's cousin, they stilettoed and pistol-whipped the bride and groom.

The bride and groom, naturally, and several pistol-whipped and stilettoed, and the bride and groom were taken to the hospital.

"The Metropolitan Day by Day" is furnished with the New York edition of "The World." See that your newspaper gives you the two additional pages.

Run Press in London for its rate per copy and circulation figures. Circulation and circulation.

MONDAY - The World's Half-Rate Situation Days - SATURDAY. EVENING EDITION

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1890.

AMONG THE TRAMPS

Kipling on Americans.

The Most Savage Strictures on Our Institutions Since Mrs. Trollope.

STEVENS ON SIBERIAN TRAVEL.

A Page of Literary Matter: Rudyard Kipling, Oscar Wilde's Latest Screen, July Books and Magazines.

SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD. SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

MILFORD'S FLOOD. A CORONET FOR MISS EHRET.

The Rich Brewer's Eldest Daughter to Wed a German Baron.

Said to Be a Brother of Baron Zedlitz, Who Wedded Miss Roosevelt.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

MILFORD, N. J., July 5.—This village presents a scene this morning which presents many features of disaster identical with those of stricken Johnstown last year. At least $100,000 worth of property was swept away by flood last evening, and it is known that one life, if not more, was quenched by the rushing waters.

The flood came about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, turning the Independence Day festivities into universal alarm at the devastation of the elements.

At that hour there was a cloudburst near the village, and rain fell in torrents till nearly 8 o'clock. The waters in the creek that runs through the eastern part of the town began to rise rapidly.

High embankments had been built along the sides of the stream after the flood of a year ago, which had destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of property, but these artificial banks were insufficient to restrain the torrents, which washed them away as if made of cardboard.

Before people had been fully aroused to the danger of the situation the rushing water fairly lifted from its foundations the frame carpenter's factory of William H. Teets and bore it down against the iron suspension bridge which crosses the creek at Bridge street. The bridge was crushed like an eggshell and was swallowed up in the flood in an instant. The bridge was 102 feet long and cost $1,000.

W. F. Thomas, dam, at their door mill, went next. A loss of about $500.

At this time the water was rising high ground on the hill, were caught by the flood and carried away.

Houses were thrown to them by terrified people, and the water was rising high ground on the hill, were caught by the flood and carried away.

The child's body was carried down the stream and lay among the debris which had accumulated from the wreck of the structure above. It has not yet been recovered, though search parties are eagerly scanning every part of the stream in the hope of finding it.

It is not yet known if any other lives have been lost, but many of the houses have been destroyed, and the water is still rising.

Another bridge, a small stone structure spanning another creek about a mile below the town, was carried away also, delaying traffic several hours.

The streets in the low-lying part of the town were filled with water to the depth of three or four feet, and mud and clay a foot deep lay in every thoroughfare. Many carcasses of drowned horses and cattle were found in every thoroughfare. Many barns were totally destroyed, and frame houses were wrecked and wrecked in large numbers, their occupants being fortunate to escape.

As nearly as possible to estimate this morning $100,000 is an inside figure of the loss. No such rainfall was ever seen here before.

A current was washed out and the railway track was torn out within 100 feet of the spot where the wrecked structure was wrecked a few years ago with frightful loss of life. Prompt darning of the same express train last night prevented a recurrence of that catastrophe.

By an improvised switch trains were enabled to resume their trips about daylight this morning.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

HIGHTSTOWN, N. J., July 5.—A terrific thunder storm passed over here last night. The lightning struck several places.

All of the farm buildings belonging to William Duncan were burned, together with one horse, two mules and two cows. The loss will amount to $5,000.

Rudyard Kipling on America.

The most popular story-teller of the day has had his fling at the United States. It will be printed in next Sunday's "World."

STILETTOS 'DON'T GO.'

Two Italians Pointed Arguments to Prevent their Cousin's Marriage.

Luis Lafale and Nicoletto Deceneto, most staid Italians, were held for trial in Justice Tamm's Brooklyn police court to-day for assault.

Their offense was unique. During the night they crept into the room of Frank and Michael Michaels, on the third floor of 28 Atlantic avenue, and, for no reason except to prevent the marriage of the Michaels to Deceneto's cousin, they stilettoed and pistol-whipped the bride and groom.

The bride and groom, naturally, and several pistol-whipped and stilettoed, and the bride and groom were taken to the hospital.

"The Metropolitan Day by Day" is furnished with the New York edition of "The World." See that your newspaper gives you the two additional pages.

Run Press in London for its rate per copy and circulation figures. Circulation and circulation.

"The Metropolitan Day by Day" is furnished with the New York edition of "The World." See that your newspaper gives you the two additional pages.

Run Press in London for its rate per copy and circulation figures. Circulation and circulation.

"The Metropolitan Day by Day" is furnished with the New York edition of "The World." See that your newspaper gives you the two additional pages.

Run Press in London for its rate per copy and circulation figures. Circulation and circulation.

THE WORLD sends a Professional Detective

Illustrations by R. PRUETT SHARE.

Landlord Totten Comes to the Aid of the Evicted Cloakmakers.

The Ormonde Club to Get the Mo-Auliffe-Slavin Match.

Heligoland to Be Delivered with Much Pomp to Germany.

Two Impending Deaths, one having on board the Emperor of Germany, and the other being under command of the Duke of Edinburgh, will arrive off the island simultaneously.

The British flag will be first saluted by the German fleet, and the island will then be formally handed over.

The German flag will next be hoisted, and will in turn be saluted by the British fleet.

The officers of the British squadron will subsequently dine on the German flagship in order to meet the Emperor.

Grave Difficulties of State in the Argentine Republic.

(BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)

LONDON, July 5.—The financial situation at Buenos Ayres has led to grave difficulties for the Government.

Everything has been strengthened by the discontent in commercial and financial circles, is attacking the Ministry with great force and bitterness.

Reconstruction in part can only avert a serious crisis.

It is probable that Senor Racedo, Minister of War, will be dismissed.

Fresh proposals have been made for a sterling loan, which is contrary to the policy of Senor Garcia, the new Minister of Finance.

Bismarck Declines a Reichstag Candidacy.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

BERLIN, July 5.—Prince Bismarck has declined to stand for the Reichstag in Kaiserlautern.

Murderer Eyraud Completely Broken Down by Pain.

(BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)

PARIS, July 5.—Eyraud, the murderer of Gouffé, is in a pitiable condition.

He suffers intense pain from the internal disease with which he is afflicted while in jail in Havanna, and which was aggravated by his voyage and close confinement on the ship.

Pain has completely broken down his spirit.

Major Wisemann a Reported Victim of the Morphine Habit.

(SPECIAL CABLE NEWS SERVICE.)

BERLIN, July 5.—It is reported that the inability of Major Wisemann to return to Africa was due to the morphine habit that he contracted during his long service in the Dark Continent.

He suffered from insomnia to such an extent that he was obliged to resort to the narcotic.

Marshall P. Wilder

Tells the young readers of the "Sunday World" about Royal children that he has met.

Local News in Brief.

Mrs. Marie Lutz, who was shot by her son-in-law yesterday, was reported to-day at St. Luke's hospital.

A physician pronounced her to be in a very dangerous condition.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

She is the wife of a well-known banker, and her husband is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

DONE TO DEATH.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon Shot Down in a Street Quarrel.

Taunted to Fight, Then Deliberately Murdered.

End of One of Elizabeth Street's Most Noted Characters.

There is grief in the Sixth Ward to-day. David Dillon, the "Fighting Dave," who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

"Fighting Dave" Dillon, who was shot down in a street quarrel, is dead. Like Goliath, he succumbed before a weaker man.

But it was not a stone that brought this giant down. It was a pistol ball, and he fell before he could bring to play that strength and science that had made him famous.

AFTER THE FOURTH.

The Fourth has come and gone, mother. And I'm alive to tell you.

The story, though, in fact, mother, I don't feel very well.

There's blisters on my hands, mother. My hair is singed away.

My shoes are black and blue, mother. I can't get much to eat.

I celebrated hard, mother. I squandered every cent.

I had to whomp it up, mother. For that was my intent.

I fired a cannon bomb, mother. Beneath our lobby cat.

Also a dozen more, mother. In father's new ping hat.

I set the barn afire, mother. And got the engine out.

Tied fuse to the dog's tail, mother. You bet that he lit out.

I threw a lighted pack, mother. Down at our pastor's feet.

He jumped fourteen foot high, mother. I never saw it beat.

Handy with his fists, and I thought there was going to be a scrap.

Just then Ed Titterton stepped up to Dillon and said to him:

"Give it to me," said Dillon, "or the both of you together."

HE IS SHOT DOWN. "With that stepped in and pushed them apart, and at the same time I heard a gun go off and saw Dave stagger and fall down on the sidewalk."

"After that," he said, "I never saw him again. I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."

"I saw him lying on the sidewalk, and I saw him being carried away by the police."